- 25X1 1. According to a Yugoslav diplomatic official stationed in Western Europe, Yugoslavia sincerely desires the maintenance of peace between the USSR and the West. There can be no question of duplicity in the matter on the part of Yugoslavia. The break with Moscow is a definite, irreparable fact.
2. It must be understood, however, that Yugoslavia could not enter into a military alliance with the Western Powers without betraying socialist principles.
3. The present international position of Yugoslavia is a delicate one since the Soviet menace hangs like the sword of Damocles over her head.
